Charles F. Flower
COBLENZ - CASTORKIRCHE.

LL7580

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" (Regd.) Postcard 7657. Processed in Berlin.

THE WIDE-WIDE-WORLD Series COBLENZ, Germany.

ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN

The Church of St. Castor, founded in 836, is a Romanesque building with four square towers, which stands in a prominent position opposite the quay at the junction of the Rhine and Moselle. The church in its present form was erected during the 12th century, consecrated in 1208 and has recently been carefully restored. It possesses a fine Gothic groined roof.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

CT PAIZ. 9